Office of the Electoral Commissioner to relocate to Mulinuu

Cabinet has approved the relocation of the Office of the Electoral Commissioner (OEC) from its old location at Lalovaea to Mulinuu.

The building occupied by the OEC at Lalovaea is run down with water leakages during heavy rainfalls. There is also limited parking space for vehicles and not enough space for the public when visiting the office for registration purposes.

The record room is not safe because of water leakages. There is also the risk of fire hazard because of the condition of the building that currently house the OEC and the unhealthy situation for the public.
