Report on International Oil Spill Prevention and Preparedness Conference

Cabinet has approved the report on the International Oil Spill Prevention and Preparedness Conference that was held in Melbourne, Australia on 12 -16 April 2010.

The meeting focused on enforcing the International Convention for Prevention of Pollution from ships by countries of the International Maritime Organization (IMO).

Some of the matters discussed are as follows:

- Maintain and enforce countries that already ratified the convention to prepare prevention measures in case of oil spill;
- Standardizing compensations for countries affected by maritime oil spill;
- The IMO has divided compensations into three categories;
- New Zealand and Australia will assist Pacific countries in times of disaster.

Representing Samoa was Principal Officer from the Ministry of Works Transport and Infrastructure, Tafaigata Toilolo.
